I hope this list is helpful in providing support and a few ideas for music while you face the task of planning your loved ones memorial service. Feel free to contact me with any questions or interest along with any requests of other special songs or artists. I will do my best to help honor and celebrate your loved one's life while also working to comfort you and your family and leave your guest feeling a little more closure and peace. It is extremely important to me to help anyone through this time in their lives and use music to honor and celebrate the legacy of others.
